

Howlin Wolf - I Asked For Water Lyrics

Oh, I asked her for water, she brought me gasoline.

Oh, I asked her for water, she brought me gasoline.

That's the troublin'gest woo-hoo (woman?), that I ever seen.

The church bell tollin', the hearse come driving slow.

The church bell tollin', the hearse come driving slow.

I hope my baby, don't leave me no more.

Oh tell me baby, when are you coming back home?

Oh tell me baby, when are you coming back home?

You know I love you baby, but you've been gone too long.
