Verse 1

G C
Turn on the screen, hear the same thing again
G G
Another late-night promise 'bout the where and the when
C
Words, words, words coming down like thunder from a crown
C
Sayin' "whole worlds gone before the sun goes down"

G Am7
I ain't no judge, I don't claim to know
Bm7 E7
But I feel that chill when the talk gets cold
A7 C7
When a line gets crossed that we can't undo...
G7 B° C Db° G Bbm7 Am7 D7
Tell me, tell me know, what kind, what kind of road we're rolling into

Verse 2 / = no chord

G / / / C
They said a whole, civilization might be gone tonight
G G
Never coming back, just erased from sight
C
I wonder, who decides what's wrong or right
C
When the cost gets buried in the dead of night
G Am7
You call it power, you call it defense
Bm7 E7
But where does it land on a human sense?
A7 C7
If the words get easy, and the stakes that high...
G7 B° C Db° G Bbm7 Am7 D7
Who's gonna answer for the reason why?

But we're the ones catching when it falls

Before we start talking 'bout permanent death
